

Leadership and Command and Mentoring (LCM) Focus Team

Date Established	May 2020
Method of Establishment	Directed by AFS-200 manager
Purpose	The LCM Focus Team is established to evaluate Part 121 air carrier requests for credit toward leadership and command training and mentoring training required by the Pilot Professional Development final rule. The LCM Focus Team will also provide technical assistance to Flight Standards employees who have questions regarding the leadership and command training and mentoring training requirements.
Focus Team Lead or Primary POC	Sheri Pippin, AFS-280
Membership	Mark Farrell, AFC-200 Jason Holbrook, AFC-400 Diane L Jarrett, AFC-600 Jeffrey Loken, AFC-400 John G Posey, AFC-600
Primary Method of Communication	LCM Focus Team mailbox, 9-AVS-LCM-Focus-Team@faa.gov
SOP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evaluate air carrier requests for credit toward leadership and command training and mentoring training as described in FAA Order 8900.1, Volume 3, Chapter 19, Section 8, Paragraph 3-1306. • Provide Flight Standards employees with applicable policy, information, and regulatory references concerning leadership and command training and mentoring training. • LCM Focus Team lead will monitor the LCM Focus Team mailbox on a regular basis. • An LCM Focus Team member will acknowledge receipt of each email. • LCM Focus Team will meet virtually as needed to evaluate requests and discuss issues.